

M3M India organises Wintervale for Kids

New Delhi, January 31, 2014: M3M India, a leading ultra-luxury real estate developer, in a strong initiative towards investors and clients. M3M organized a two day Kids Carnival for existing clients and their family. It was fun filled day of winter with activities for kids like Cricket, Football, Rifle shooting, Photo booth, Magic Show and Tattoo Art.

Mr. Pankaj Bansal, Director-M3M India said, “We have always taken care of existing clients and it was a day filled with activities for the whole family. Winters are the best for enjoying the sunny day and activities filled with fun and joy, we decided to take up this activity and make a significant contribution to our valued clients and their families.”

About the M3M Group of India:

M3M Group is one of India's premiere business conglomerates with interests in Real Estate (Residential / Commercial / Retail), Hospitality, Education and IT / SEZs. The land bank exceeds 2000 acres of prime land with 11 million sq. ft. of built up space. The organization has already invested over US $ 500 million in developing many iconic projects in North India. The projected business value of the organization exceeds US $ 5 billion.

M3M has embarked upon 39 projects in Haryana. M3M Golf Estate, the 75 acre uber luxury resort-like residential complex is an example of its venture. This project has won many accolades and awards the world over at Dubai, London and San Francisco. Recently it won the award for the Best Luxury Project in India from NAREDCO, a Govt. of India patronized organization. The group is known for its philanthropic activities in uplifting the weaker sections of our society. M3M is also known to back healthy and clean living by promoting sports and games for the youth. The recent Polo tournaments were sponsored by the company.

M3M is an ardent supporter of all government initiatives. The company directors were part of the recent business delegation to Japan along with the PM and also accompanied the President of India, His Excellency Shri Pranab Mukherjee, to Finland and Norway.